Scoil Éigse

Scoil Éigse, CCÉ's annual international summer school takes place in Ennis, August 13th to 18th. Students of all ages register for the various instrumental music, singing, dancing and Irish language classes. Classes boast a low pupil-tutor ratio and are lead by a team of international tutors who are also master performers. These tutors have proven track records and they bring a wealth of performance and teaching experience to Scoil Éigse, reflecting the underlying educational philosophy of CCÉ. Registration also includes attendance at afternoon recitals, Club Éigse in the evening and the closing tutor concert - space permitting other family members are welcome to attend. Scholarships to the Scoil Éigse for both main competitions and slow Complete Scoil Éigse forms with full fees must be in Head Office on or before 3rd August. No registration 'on the day' at Scoil Éigse, except in exceptional circumstances. Literature form comhaltas.ie

Scholarships to the Scoil Éigse for both main competitions and slow air competitions are given to 1st and 2nd prizewinners in the 12 - 15 and 15 - 18 age groups in the following competitions: fiddle, concert flute, 2-row accordion, whistle, uilleann pipes, concertina, piano accordion, harp, banjo and traditional singing in Irish and English. Scholarships are also given to five qualifiers in each of the 11-13, 13-15, 15-18 age groups in Comhrá Gaeilge. Scholarships are not transferable between categories or persons. Where a person is successful in more than one category, only one can be chosen when applying. Scoil Éigse also caters for Non-scholarship applicants. Graded classes are offered in fiddle, flute, whistle, button-accordion, piano accordion, concertina, banjo, harp, uilleann-pipes, piano-accompaniment, traditional singing, amhránaíocht, Comhrá Gaeilge, dancing and a mixed instrument class for adults.
